*Pradhan MantriJeevanJyotiBimaYojana (PMJJBY)

*Pradhan MantriSurakshaBimaYojana (PMSBY)

*Atal Pension Yojana (APY) were simultaneously launched at 115 locations throughout the country.

The schemes -- two insurance products and one pension product -- are targeted especially to the unorganized sector and economically weaker population but others can enrolled themselves as well. A massive 80% of the country's population is still outside the insurance coverage while the government estimated that merely 11% of the working population are under pension net

Pradhan MantriJeevanJyotiBimaYojana will offer Rs 2 lakh cover at Rs 330 premium every year. Bank account holders in the age 18 to 50 years are eligible to take this facility. The life risk cover will get terminated after 55 years.

Pradhan MantriSurakshaBimaYojana will offer a renewable one year accidental death cum disability cover of Rs 2 lakh at Rs 12 premium every year. The insured will get Rs 1 lakh in case of partial permanent disability.

Atal Pension Yojana is for the people in the unorganized sector who are outside a formal pension net so far. The pension scheme would allow subscribers of age 18 to 40. The government will co-contribute 50% of total contribution or Rs 1000 per annum whichever is lower, for the first five years. Subscribers without any social security and who don't pay income tax will get this added benefit. However, people have to enroll themselves before December 31, this year to get government contribution. Under this scheme, subscriber will get guaranteed minimum pension from the age of 60. The pension could be Rs 1000, Rs 2000, Rs 3000, Rs 4000 or Rs 5000 per month, depending on the size of contribution.
